Expected salary: HK$48,000 per month

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Growth marketing leader who treats acquisition and retention as one economic system rather than two departments. 8 years across high-growth e-commerce and digital businesses in Hong Kong and Southeast Asia, owning multi-million HKD annual media budgets — HK$500K+ per month at Hong Kong's #1 baby e-commerce platform at consistent 3–7x ROAS — while simultaneously owning the lifecycle programme that made that spend defensible.

The through-line is the funnel. Diagnosed and rebuilt conversion paths from ad promise through landing page to checkout; built three-stage funnel architecture (Awareness / Consideration / Conversion) with distinct messaging per journey stage; owned a Klaviyo programme for 30,000 subscribers with four automated flows converting first purchases into repeat revenue; and delivered a full website design and revamp with the in-house design team to fix user flow rather than just buy more traffic. Turned a failing account from 0.3x to 3x ROAS in 90 days by treating it as a creative-and-funnel problem, not a bidding one, and lifted conversion rate +200% through structured testing.

Led a team of three (two designers, one marketing executive) across social media, EDM, website revamp and offline events, plus agency partners. Trilingual: Cantonese (native), English (fluent), Mandarin (fluent). Hong Kong-based, available for hybrid.

SIGNATURE CASE STUDIES

1. Funnel Diagnosis Over Bid Management — ROAS 0.3x to 3x in 90 Days

Context. A fashion and lifestyle retail client was running Meta Ads at 0.3x ROAS. The instinct in that situation is to change bidding or audiences; the actual problem was further down — the creative pool had gone stale and the landing page did not deliver on what the ads promised, so traffic arrived and left.

Action. Ran single-variable tests to isolate where the funnel was leaking before touching budget. Rebuilt the creative pool around journey-stage messaging rather than a single offer angle, rebuilt landing page messaging and structure to match ad promise, and reallocated 70% of budget to cold-audience prospecting so the account was manufacturing demand rather than harvesting it.

Result. ROAS scaled 0.3x to 3x within 90 days on a majority-prospecting split — a harder result than a retargeting-led lift, and one that held because the conversion path itself was fixed rather than the traffic re-bought.

2. Lifecycle Retention Engine — 30,000 Subscribers

Context. Acquisition was performing but repeat purchase was under-exploited. Unit economics depended on continuous paid spend, and acquisition creative and email messaging were effectively telling customers two different stories.

Action. Owned the Klaviyo content-to-conversion system end to end for 30,000 subscribers: 2x weekly campaigns plus four automated flows — welcome, abandoned cart, post-purchase and win-back — with audience segmentation and A/B testing on subject lines and offers. Coordinated the acquisition-to-retention handover so paid creative and lifecycle messaging carried one continuous narrative from first impression through to reorder.

Result. A working repeat-purchase engine driving measurable returning revenue — reducing dependence on paid acquisition and lifting the value of every customer the paid programme brought in.

3. Three-Stage Funnel Architecture with Journey-Stage Messaging

Context. A multi-regional hair care brand was running one message to everyone, which meant cold audiences got conversion messaging and warm audiences got introductions — both mismatched to intent.

Action. Built AI-generated customer personas, then designed distinct creative and messaging for each funnel stage — Awareness, Consideration, Conversion — with the testing structured so each stage could be optimised independently rather than as one blended account.

Result. Testing cycles cut 50%, with each stage measurable on its own terms instead of results being averaged into noise.

4. Website Revamp Alongside Live Paid Performance

Context. At Baby Central, paid traffic was landing on a site whose user flow was limiting conversion. Buying more traffic into a leaking funnel would have raised cost without raising revenue.

Action. Led the in-house design team (two designers) through a full website design and revamp, improving user flow and conversion path, while keeping the HK$500K+/month paid programme running and the EDM, social and offline event workload delivered by the same three-person team.

Result. The revamp shipped without paid performance dropping — ROAS held at 3–7x throughout — and the improved conversion path compounded the value of every subsequent dollar of media spend.

5. Multi-Million HKD Budget with Revenue Accountability

Context. Baby Central, Hong Kong's #1 baby e-commerce platform, scaling across HK and SEA in a trust-sensitive category where engagement metrics mislead and only revenue is reliable.

Action. Owned channel performance and budget allocation across Meta and Google — Search, Shopping, Performance Max, retargeting — at HK$500K+ per month (~HK$6M annually). Built GA4 and Meta Ads Manager dashboards to tie spend to revenue rather than engagement proxies, with UTM and pixel governance maintained continuously. Scaled a 200+ KOL programme as a measurable acquisition channel.

Result. Consistent 3–7x ROAS, HK$300K incremental GMV within 5 months, and 30% organic traffic growth via integrated SEO and paid social.
