AI-Native Marketing Manager — Hong Kong Financial Services

+852 9298 1110 | ai@digitalanson.com | digitalanson.com | Hong Kong — available on-site

English (fluent, writing-grade) · Traditional Chinese (native, writing-grade) · Cantonese (native) · Mandarin (fluent)

I AM NOT YOUR CANDIDATE FOR THIS ROLE

You are searching for a Director-level consultant with tech advisory pedigree, IT strategy leadership in complex organisations, and a record of selling AI programmes into international banks and insurers. I have none of those four things. LinkedIn scores me at 2 of your 9 required skills, and having read the brief line by line, I think LinkedIn is right.

I am sending this anyway, for one reason: you are searching across exactly the market I work in, and I would rather be a known quantity in your pipeline than a wasted CV in your inbox.

Your own stated coverage is financial technology, payments, digital strategy, insurtech, data science, analytics, AI and machine learning — for banks, insurers, global consulting firms and technology companies. Somewhere in that mandate flow there is a marketing seat, and when it comes through, this page is what I want you to remember.

WHAT I ACTUALLY AM

A digital and performance marketing manager with 8 years, who has been running commercial AI production since 2022 — two years before the market moved.

Not an AI strategist. A practitioner: the person who makes AI tooling actually change how work gets done, then measures whether it did.

Budget owned	HK$500K+/month in-house at peak · HK$3M+ cumulative across 20+ clients · consistent 3–7x ROAS
AI in commercial use since	2022 — testing cycles cut 50%, production time cut ~60%, measured before and after
Languages	Traditional Chinese and English, both writing-grade — regulated copy does not route through a translator
Sector direction	Actively moving into Hong Kong financial services; current pipeline is brokerage, consumer lending and retail banking
Level	Manager. Not Director.

THE FIVE THINGS WORTH KNOWING

1 — I owned HK$500K+/month against revenue, not impressions. At Baby Central, Hong Kong's #1 baby e-commerce platform: HK$300K incremental GMV in five months, 30% organic traffic growth, and the GA4 and Meta dashboards senior stakeholders reported off monthly. The hard part was never the media buying — it was getting product, operations and finance to agree what each number meant.

2 — I put generative AI into client-facing production in 2022. Prompt libraries, reusable templates and QC gates rather than ad-hoc usage. Testing cycles cut 50%, output at 10+ campaign variants per cycle, single-variable discipline held so every result stayed attributable to one change. I can state the savings because I measured them.

3 — I fix accounts that are failing. A fashion and lifestyle retailer at 0.3x ROAS, budget trapped in warm retargeting. Rebuilt the funnel, moved 70% of spend into cold acquisition, tested to isolate which messages were failing. 3x ROAS in 90 days on a majority-acquisition split — net-new customers, not harvested demand.

4 — I ran my own book for eight years. 20+ concurrent client accounts, sourced, pitched, scoped, delivered, reported and renewed alone. Currently HK$13,800/month consulting packages sold off demand I generate myself.

5 — I can build distribution without a media budget. One Facebook Reel: 76,000 organic views from a page with 77 followers, zero paid support. A second, built the same way, reached 11,000 — which is what tells you the first was structural rather than luck. 58 films written, directed and cut solo, eight of them in the last month.

One correction before you look me up: my channel's lifetime view total is large, but roughly 60% of it comes from a single Japanese anime music cover, while the AI and marketing films sit in the hundreds to low thousands. I am deliberately not using the aggregate as evidence. The two Reel figures above are the ones that hold up.

WHERE I FIT IN YOUR MANDATE FLOW

Marketing, growth, CRM or content roles at Manager level, in:

- Fintech, brokerage and virtual banking — I write Traditional Chinese and English to publication standard, which matters when every claim carries regulatory exposure.
- Insurtech and consumer lending — I have already done the regulatory reading for adjacent applications: Money Lenders Ordinance licensing conditions, and the HKMA Mandatory Reference Checking Scheme. I arrive having read the perimeter rather than assuming it.
- Any organisation whose AI programme has stalled at adoption — which is most of them. The failure is rarely tooling; it is that the tool landed and the workflow did not change.
- Consulting firms needing their own demand generation — practices are usually strong at delivery and weak at pipeline. I have built a Cantonese demand engine from zero.

What I am not: a Director, a strategist, an IT lead, or an enterprise seller. Please do not put me in front of a client expecting any of those — it wastes your credibility, which is the only thing you actually have to spend.

CERTIFICATIONS & EDUCATION

Executive Certificate in Growth Hacking & Data-Informed Marketing — The University of Hong Kong (2019) · Advanced Course for Generative AI in Digital Marketing, YMCA College (Dec 2024) · All-in-One Full-Stack Marketing, No-Code & AI Agent Course (2025 – Present) · BA Travel and Tourism Management, Northumbria University UK (2005) · Associate Degree, City University of Hong Kong (2004)

AVAILABILITY & PACKAGE

Current: HK$40,600 per month — self-employed consulting income. Gross, and excluding employer MPF contribution, paid annual leave and medical coverage, so not directly comparable to a permanent package.

Expected: HK$49,000 – 54,000 per month base, excluding bonus. Morgan McKinley's 2026 Hong Kong reference point for a Digital Marketing Manager is HK$55,000, and this range sits just under it — priced at Manager level, which is the level I am. Flexible depending on how the role is levelled and the total package — happy to anchor to your budgeted band rather than guess.

Availability: 2 weeks from agreed terms.

Location: Hong Kong, available on-site.
